ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, the President, National Association of Software & Service Companies (NASSCOM), New Delhi has informed that NASSCOM has won the bid to host World Congress on IT (WCIT) 2018 in India. NASSCOM participated in a competitive bidding and won the hosting rights at WCIT, 2014 in Guadalajara, Mexico beginning October, 2014. He further informed that the total expenditure to host WCIT 2008 would be approximately USD 3 million including the License fees. The minimum share of the total estimated cost of USD 3 million to be met by the host Government is USD 1 million, for co-hosting this most prestigious global IT event. The balance USD 2 million would be raised and mobilized by NASSCOM with industry support. The State share of 1 million USD will need to be made in a phased manner with the first installment amounting to USD 5,00,000 to be paid by March, 2015 and the rest during the financial year 2015-2016. He also informed that from Government of Telangana perspective, there is a huge potential to raise profile of the State on a global IT platform that will promote trade and investment within the State. This will be done by organizing business delegations from amongst the 80 participant countries, for doing business in India and finally elicited the interest of the Government in Co-hosting WCIT 2018 with NASSCOM.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the ITE&C Department has confirmed the participation of Government of Telangana in conducting the World Congress on IT (WCIT) 2018 as a co-host and agreed to borne the State share as proposed by the NASSCOM.

3. In the reference 3rd read above, the President, NASSCOM has duly confirmed the acceptance of Government of Telangana as co-host for WCIT 2018 in Hyderabad.

4. In the reference 6th read above, Budget Release Order issued for Rs.3,26,10,000/- (Rupees Three Crores Twenty Six Lakhs Ten Thousand only) to ITE&C Department by re-appropriating the said amount from the Head of Account 330 - Subsidies to 280-284 - Professional Services & Other Payments towards the payment of first installment of State share for the above mentioned event.
